

PERIWINKLE CIRCLE REPORT
OCTOBER 2023

The “Welcome Back Meeting” of the Periwinkle Circle was held on October 19, 2023 at Sandhill Cove. Sandhill Cove Residential Living sponsored a delicious lobster salad luncheon complete with an “work of art” birthday cake, covered in strawberries!. Arrangements were made by Jill Burton, Vice-President of the Circle and Director of Marketing at Sandhill Cove. There were 10 members in attendance.

Gail Brady, President reported that:

The Circle had made charitable contributions to Treasure Coast Hospice and the Boys and Girls Club

The date of the Garden Tour and that the Chairs are looking for volunteers for committees

The Circle will be responsible for the March meeting, the probable theme being St Patrick’s Day

Reminded members to please respond to Jill for meetings so phone calls are not necessary

Dues were collected

Reported on the health of Susan Moore

Jill Burton, Vice President reviewed the planned activities for the year. The November meeting is a tour of the Butterfly Garden of Secretary Cathy Stubbs.

Edna Bartlett, Treasurer reported a $446.12 balance in the checking account

Fran Boney brought several adorable Christmas door hangers and other Christmas decoration, made from supplies from the Dollar Store. She demonstrated how easy they were to make.

Submitted by:

Gail P. Brady, President