

Hello ladies of the Garden Club of Stuart,

In less than 4 weeks from now we will be setting up our flower show, A Symphony of Beauty. The committee has put a lot of hours into planning a wonderful show that will reflect the wonderful club we have. But even with all the work that has been put into it these past months, the pressure of producing the show is even more intensive at this time. The next three weeks will take the efforts of many more people to finish the job. This letter is a call for help from everyone who is able. Your efforts, no matter how small they may seem to you, will fill in the big picture, a beautiful show that will reflect the cooperation of all members of the GCS.

Here is a list of what is needed. Some jobs will be more time consuming than others, but I think everyone can find a spot where they are able to help.

1. This is VERY IMPORTANT. The design schedule still has some spots available. It is IMPERATIVE that these slots are filled ASAP. This is where there are openings:

Class 3	Parallel Design	2 openings
Class 4	a romantic Tray for One	1 opening
Class 7	Creative Line Design	2 openings
Class 9	Reflective Design	1 opening
Class 10	Multi-Rhythmic Design	1 opening

If you have not signed up for a design yet, please check the schedule online for a description of each design and see which one suits you. Contact: Mary Neal

2. Pre-registration sheets for Horticulture are due to Ali Hooker by February 13. Ali Hooker, Entries Chair, and Louise Andrews, Classification Chair, will be available before the general meeting from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., and again after the meeting to help you with your forms. If you are having trouble identifying a plant, either bring the plant or a photo if it.
3. Hostesses Contact: Donna Berger
4. Clerks Contact: Marty Neal
5. People to help with set-up Wednesday, March 1
6. People to help with entries on Thursday, March 2 Contact: Alice Hooker
7. People to retouch staging pieces. Some props are heavy so you may need help in getting them.
8. Many people to help break down the show on Saturday, March 2. We only have 2 hours to complete that herculean task and can use all the help we can get.

There will be sign-up sheets at the meeting. We appreciate everyone who can help.

Alice Hooker, Show Co-Chair
